GLOBAL TRANSFORMATIONS IN THE GLOBAL ENERGY MARKET, CHANGES IN THE GEOGRAPHY AND STRUCTURE OF ENERGY DEMAND, OIL PRICES WERE THE KEY TOPICS OF DISCUSSION AT THE OPENING OF THE XII KAZENERGY EURASIAN FORUM

On September 26, 2019, the XII KAZENERGY Eurasian Forum themed “Future of Energy Sources: Innovative Growth” was opened in the Congress center of Nur-Sultan: This event is the main international event of KAZAKHSTAN ENERGY WEEK 2019 (KEW) held this week in the Kazakh capital by KAZENERGY Association with the support of the Government of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

The forum traditionally opened with a plenary session. Among its key speakers are Prime Minister of the Republic of Kazakhstan Askar Mamin, OPEC Secretary General Mohammed Barkindo, Chairman of the Management Board of NWF Samruk-Kazyna JSC Akhmetzhan Yessimov, President of Iceland (1996-2016) Ólafur Ragnar Grímsson.

The main issues raised during the plenary session were the transition to sustainable energy in the context of global market changes, the growing demand for energy around the world, mainly due to traditional sources of raw materials – oil and gas, the development of existing and search for new sources of energy, as well as opportunities for their stable supply to consumers.

Speaking at the opening of the Forum, Prime Minister of Kazakhstan Askar Mamin said that currently all participants of the world energy market need to unite global efforts to overcome the existing challenges.

“Kazakhstan should maintain stability and predictability of the energy market and the global economy in view of the risks of future recessions,” he said. “KAZENERGY Association today gives us an excellent opportunity to contribute to a constructive dialogue and gathered here the best representatives of the industry and the international community.” The head of the Government of the Republic of Kazakhstan stressed that, thanks to the stability and predictability of energy supplies, Kazakhstan is becoming a regional leader.

Глобальные изменения в мире не могут не сказываться на энергетике, трансформирующейся в соответствии с новыми вызовами и угрозами

Болат Акчулаков

На фоне таких трендов, как перенос центра потребления с запада на восток, качественный спрос на энергоносители, вовлечение в энергетический баланс возобновляемых источников энергии, внедрение энергоэффективных и энергосберегающих технологий, меняется сама философия развития энергетики. Теперь от того, какой она будет – чистой, экологичной, энергоёмкой или довлеющей на окружающий мир, зависит наше будущее.
